

March Newsletter

Despite the warm conditions throughout January and February the Club has maintained a busy program.

During the period we have welcomed a number of new members: Greg Waugh, Bill Parker, Greg Parker, Graham Gardner and Joanne Legg; please make them welcome.

A number of local folk have also expressed interest in membership of the club.

Social golf on Fridays from 5:00pm will continue through to the end of daylight savings, members of the community welcome. Thank you to Jillian, Heather and Lesley for supporting this initiative.

A community golf clinic has been scheduled for the 3rd May with Travis Harrison, more details shortly.

The Club is hopeful for a busy Autumn period with the Lakeside and Tour Elephants Challenges, the Ladies Bowl on the 7th of March, the Labour Day, Easter and Anzac Day weekends.

The footy tipping competition is on track to commence for the start of the season. Register your interest at marysvillegolfclub.footytipping@hotmail.com. Cost is $50 per player.

Through our ongoing relationship with Toro, Kellan has procured a Z-master 60inch rough-cutter to compliment our capability and reliability. Mower(s) replacement is our ongoing priority!

The Club acknowledges the efforts of all our volunteer teams:

Course Maintenance	Bob, Geoff, Ron, Ray, Liz, Roger and Lloyd
Gardens	Peter, Heather, Gail, Lesley, Jillian
Pro Shop bar, administration	Travers, Heather, Jillian, Ross, Mim, Colin, Steve, Sabrina
Social Golf	Jillian, Heather, Lesley, Bob
Golf	Captains Alan, Lesley, match committees, Helen, Heather

And the MCG&BC Committee members.

We are pleased to announce a new volunteer team being formed to look after building maintenance. We have identified some minor items requiring attention and invite members to volunteer to join this new team or any of the other existing teams that you may be able to assist with some time. Please contact the committee.

The member forum was held on the 1st February in conjunction with a NTP competition, which was won by Bob Emblin; thanks to those who attended, minutes available, next forum to be advised.

Firewood is available from the Club at the rate of $80 for a 6x4 trailer load delivered. Kindling is also available for $20 per tub. Thanks to Kellan, Steve Berry for this fundraising initiative available to members and friends. Orders to Kellan, Heather or Steve Coker.
